

Murray Joynt

Died in New Zealand on 10th April 2020.

He is remembered in Coober Pedy for the blower.

His blower had a hopper and his design was the one that was copied and developed by other opal miners in the early 1970's.

Murray was born in Putaruru NZ on 23rd June 1928.

Murray left Coober Pedy in 2004 and returned to NZ to live in Taumarunui surrounded by loving and caring friends.

Murray Joynt in 1993

Photo by Sue Britt