

Justices of the Peace

A. A. Burford, Payneham:—Mr. S. B. Harry, who is said to be the youngest justice of the peace in South Australia, is to be congratulated. It would be interesting to know who was the youngest to have been appointed.

My son, Mr. George Burford, of Coober Pedy, in the Far North, was appointed in September 8, 1920. He was born in June 24 years before. He has been round the world since, and has sat on the Bench with me at St. Peters.
